

Personal Savior

Bride

Everybody needs someone to lean on Everybody needs to remember where they've been
Everybody needs somewhere to call heaven
Everybody need something to believe in

Everybody needs a personal Savior
Everybody needs a hand from a friend
Everybody needs a personal Savior
Everybody need freedom from their sin

Everybody's going to feel hopeless and lost
Everybody's going to blame and taste fear
Everone hears a still small voice
Everyone's going to shed a tear

Everybody needs a personal Savior
Everybody needs a hand from a friend
Everybody needs a personal Savior
Everybody needs freedom from their sin

Everyone needs to learn to break bread
Everyone needs faith, not a sign
Everyone needs to carry their own cross
Everyone needs the blood bottled like wine

Everybody needs a personal Savior
Everybody needs a hand from a friend
Everybody needs a personal Savior
Everybody needs freedom from their sin

Everybody needs a personal Savior
Everybody needs a hand from a friend
Everybody needs a personal Savior
Everybody needs freedom from their sin
