

Why Won't He Break

Bride

Indulging in the calamities
Nun's faces down in the mud near the ridge
Are their backs as strong as their faith?
Soldiers march on a human bridge

Gorge with lust 'til you're fat with pride
Elevate through darkness out of your mind
Bruise the back with your sharp tongue
Push down on his head and crush his lungs

Why won't he break
Why won't he break

Laugh out loud 'til he goes deaf
Tear at the heart within his chest
His rob of flesh he won't deny
Use ignorance as your alibi

Why won't he break
Why won't he break
Why won't he break (why won't he break)
Why won't he break

Part the garments and smell the clothes
Scent of death lingers in your nose
Anger is ripe 'til the veins explode
Hold him down, lay on the stone

Why won't he break
Why won't he break
Why won't he break (why won't he break)
Why won't he break
