Bridgit Mendler

Boy, you make me flip
See your passing ship
Sail right off to me again, again
Boy, where have you been?
Will I see you again?
Let's meet at the library
Okay

Saw you from over a shoulder in the corner
With a bunch of peeps that go to the high school
I remember when we were in the yellow building
Never friends
Same hair and the same old crew
Light blue, neon glowing, tippy toeing
Try to spy without you knowing

Boy, you make me flip
I see your passing ship
Sail right up to me again
Boy, where have you been?
Will I see you again?
Let's meet at the library, the library, boy
Oh, let's meet there, okay?
Okay

Midnight, room is filling, something's building
Ask my phone and let it in
The highlights
Where you been, what ya doing?
Fancy college, paying dues
No small talk, that's the only rule
And you said since you landed
You've been stranded
With the books, they're for lending

Boy, you make me flip
I see your passing ship
Sail right up to me again
Boy, where have you been?
Will I see you again?
Let's meet at the library, the library, boy
Let's meet there, okay? Okay
Okay? Okay
