Lunch Hour Pops

I wait on the stairs for a break in my mind Let the balloons go outside Let the balloons go outside I wait on the stairs for my thoughts to align You are the sun in my mind You are the sun in my mind

Clouds rock like a ship at sea Sooth the waves of injury Clouds rock like a ship at sea Sooth the waves of injury

I wait on the stairs, there's a view in my mind Objects of love in the sky Objects of love in the sky I wait on the stairs for my thoughts to be kind What better view will I find What better view will I find

Inflated with transparency Float away my injury Inflated with transparency Float away my injury

Let the balloons go outside Let the balloons go outside

I wait on the stairs for a break in my mind Let the balloons go outside Let the balloons go outside

Let the balloons go outside
