Baby, you know that I like to be right But I'm hoping this time, baby, I'm wrong Baby, you know I'm loving you skin tight But I'm thinking this time, you want me to run When she calls Tell me truth, tell me truth Is it more than I knew? I knew So are you home tonight? Are you alone tonight? I've been drinking and I'm thinking, that I don't wanna fight Are you home tonight? Are you alone tonight? You've been drinking and I'm thinking Are we sinking? Yeah, I just wanna fight I just wanna fight Darling I know it wasn't the first time I went outta my mind, hoping for more Darling you know, that this is the last time You don't get to come round, begging for more When she calls Tell me truth, tell me truth Is it more than I knew? I knew So are you home tonight? Are you alone tonight? I've been drinking and I'm thinking, that I don't wanna fight Are you home tonight? Are you alone tonight? You've been drinking and I'm thinking Are we sinking? Yeah, I just wanna fight I just wanna fight I just wanna fight Is it more than I knew? I knew So are you home tonight? Are you alone tonight? I've been drinking and I'm thinking, that I don't wanna fight Are you home tonight? Are you alone tonight? You've been drinking and I'm thinking Are we sinking? Yeah, I just wanna fight So are you home tonight? Are you alone tonight?

I've been drinking and I'm thinking, that I don't wanna fight

Are you home tonight?
Are you alone tonight?
You've been drinking and I'm thinking
Are we sinking?
Yeah, I just wanna fight

I just wanna fight I just wanna fight I just wanna fight
