Blame Me

Brothers Osborne

Blame me if you want to I'll just keep on, keep on, keep on loving you Lie to me, find someone new But I'll just keep on, keep on, keep on loving you.

I met you not so long ago and oh how I felt Every time you looked me your eyes would cast the spell But that spell became a broken dream for your love was never tr ue And no matter what they say I'll just keep on loving you.

Blame me if you want to I'll just keep on, keep on, keep on loving you Lie to me, find someone new But I'll just keep on, keep on, keep on loving you.
