

All Work And No Play

Brutal Truth

Our system is built on twigs of corruption, power and greed...
Social disorder looting and rioting, killing greed...
Grace in a world under siege - destruction...
Pick off our weak - preach for a life... a quiet ending.
All work and no play.
Destroy world.
So quit your bitching, our world's ending - our lives are set on course.
A social meltdown, global implode.
Gouging prices social unrest.
Scavenging for our basic needs.
Zombies clawing brains for meat.
All work and no play.
