

Alberta Bound

Bryan Adams

Alberta don't you look good in the mornin' like wakin' up from some frozen dream it's been so long that i'd almost forgotten you're the prettiest thing i've seen

Alberta it's been a while since i've seen you i've been down a thousand roads since then well i guess i've settled down some but you're as wild as you've ever been i'm out here in the middle of nowhere somewhere between lost and found any road i take might be the wrong one but hey i'm Alberta bound

Alberta do you remember that winter we were lucky just to survive maybe we were never meant for each other but you still make me feel alive

Alberta it was just a matter of timing you know as well as me i couldn't stay i've seen the seven wonders of the world now but you still take my breath away
