Now you know
That I stood outside your window
Just a little too long.

What you're gonna do
When the hours pass away
And you know that I'm gone.
Well, it may be a week,
It may be a day,
I'm six blocks over
And I don't know what to say to you.

Jokin' 'bout your mama Went a little too far. But you caught me Out with the others Till the early dawn.

There may be a time

If we played it right

I'm six blocks over

And you wanna spend a night with me.

Now the hours and the minutes Just fly away. You win some and you lose some, You gotta get it right Or I'll be saying Bye bye bye bye bye bye.

Thinkin' back to
The way you're holdin' me down,
I'd be better off dead.

Now you know
That the time is running out
Of the things we said.

Well, it may be a week,
It may be a day,
I'm six blocks over
And I don't know what to say to you.

Now the hours and the minutes Just fly away. You win some and you lose some, You gotta get it right Or I'll be saying Bye bye bye bye ...
