

Everyone take your places we're fucking it up going crazy, anoth her town witch way to roll and you know that we're taking it Stoned baby loves to go riding she loves it cause she's sick in the head, lights down music loud and you know that we're makin g it

We're going riding, we're gonna find away, we're going riding a nd when the fear has left you put one down and go home

Phat like a fiend on a payday the crazy days have taken their t oll, and if you think the roads a bore well you know that your faking it

Your so upset but complacent I know a place that you otta go, C alvins in the back your face in my lap and lets roll

All the way from the west side of town we get up and we never c ome down got the juice and we're loose cause we want to get was ted

Fucked up from the left side down and mom and dad are out of to wn you know they don't like it when your stoned
