

The Motherfucker

Buckcherry

When it all goes down, and you feel enraged
You will soon find out all your enemies have changed
If you're down and out, and you wish them pain
Well you do right now, make it come back around
Kind of lose and make them pay, make them pay

The motherfucker too gone on money
The motherfucker too gone on time
And all the motherfucker let me
Watch is smoke and mirrors and jive

When the shots ring out, and they call your name
If you're filled with doubt, nothing's lost if nothing's gained
Time to stand your ground, bring them in your cage
Let it all hang out, take the system down
Tie the noose and watch them hang, watch them hang

The motherfucker too gone on money
The motherfucker too gone on time
And all the motherfucker let me
Watch is smoke and mirrors and jive
The motherfucker is always winning
The motherfucker is always prime
And all the motherfuckers out there
Keep this fucking dream alive

Take it to the limit
Feel in my soul
If you want to fuck with it
It's out of control, out of control

When the shots ring out and they call your name
If you're filled with doubt, nothing's lost if nothing's gained

The motherfucker too gone on money
The motherfucker too gone on time
And all the motherfucker let me
Watch is smoke and mirrors and jive
The motherfucker is always winning
The motherfucker is always prime
And all the motherfuckers out there
keep this fucking dream alive
Fuck your smoke and mirrors and jive
Keep this fucking dream alive
