

Tears Don't Fall (Part 2)

Bullet For My Valentine

Let's go again!

Ten Thousand times,
I've tried, I've tried to call you
I know you wanna talk
I need to show you how I hurt

So answer me
Talk to me
So answer me
Where's your sympathy?

You pour your Salt into my wounds!
And make me feel like I'm to blame
You pour your Salt into my wounds, I won't play your game!

Obsession! (Obsession)
Rejection! (Rejection)
Your final breath is my possession
Obsession! (Obsession)
Rejection! (Rejection)
Your final breath is now my possession

Ten thousand times,
I've tried, I've tried to hate you
Forget your pretty little lies
It's time for me to make you hurt

So answer me
Talk to me
So answer me
Where's your empathy?

You pour your salt into my wounds!
And make me feel like I'm to blame
Your pour your salt into my wounds, I won't play your game!

Obsession! (Obsession)
Rejection! (Rejection)
Your final breath is my possession
Obsession! (Obsession)
Rejection! (Rejection)
Your final breath is now my possession

You pour your salt into my wounds
You make me feel like I'm to blame
Keep pourin' salt into my wounds
Keep makin' me feel like I'm to blame
Keep pourin' salt into my wounds
I won't play your game!

-Solo-

So answer me
Talk to me
So answer me
Where's your sympathy?

You pour your salt into my wounds!
And make me feel like I'm to blame
You pour your salt into my wounds, I won't play your game!

Obsession! (Obsession)
Rejection! (Rejection)
Your final breath is my possession
Obsession! (Obsession)
Rejection! (Rejection)
Your final breath, your final breath!

I told you before!
Your tears don't fall!
I've been here before!
They crash around me!
