

No Way Out

BulletProof Messenger

Someways I have come to itself, the ways you tortured me lock me up left to regret, but I never searched for the key its been long since i was locked in this room, I cant tell that its day or night the hours barely move, its like this room

I press my ear, its all i hear, theres no way out surpress my fear, ill make this clear, theres no way out I suffocate, but need this way, theres no way out in some time I find my piece of mind, was fleeting once, but no w im fine

when im finally free to escape, some time to sense you here burn some bridges down te relay, to where i lost it within reasons why im here and who i have become, so much to see and so many things left undone

I press my ear, its all I hear, theres no way out
in some time I find my piece of mind, was fleeting once, but no w im fine

the fear wont take me, the fear consumes me lately I can not take this, fear away from the weakness in a helpless stateness, no room for a crown and restless cant take this, fear away from the weakness
in a helpless stateness, no room for a crown and restless

I press my ear, its all i hear, theres no way out
in some time I find my piece of mind, was fleeting once, but no w im fine

But now im fine...
