Everyday it starts again
Waking up to feet on shaky ground
This is just another poor excuse for trying
The more I give the more you take away

Now every ounce I have, I draw Just to push me through another day

Heels dragging Heart lacking

But it's so damn hard When the weight of the world Is on your shoulders

Now who am I to express and complain That this is killing me? It never matters

I said it once and I'll say it all again Keep screaming, keep waving You're digging holes and I'm buried inside

No one can hear you But if we give up now Then at least we can say we tried

Everyday it starts again
Waking up to feet on shaky ground
This is just another poor excuse for trying
The more I give the more you take away

Now who am I to express and complain That this is killing me? It never matters

I said it once and I'll say it all again Keep screaming, keep waving You're digging holes and I'm buried inside

No one can hear you But if we give up now At least we can say we tried

Heels dragging Heart lacking
