

War Song

Call Me No One

I sold my heart for the war
Burnt the hand that smeared my name
Hit the reset, hit the reset
Now I'd like to throw the blame
Forward, forward
(Forward, forward)

Are we alive or dead?
So feed us the word
Oh we know you're so inspired
And give me the war
Till you know I'm satisfied

When a phase starts dying, we all pretend
Nobody bought the trend
Nobody bought the trend
Hit the reset, hit the reset
Try to find yourself a name
Forward, forward
(Forward, forward)

Are we alive or dead?
So feed us the word
Oh we know you're so inspired
And give me the war
Till you know I'm satisfied

Stay down, what have you gone and done
I don't know
Stay down, what have you gone and done
Stay down, for now
Stay down, whatever you had is lost now
So far gone

So feed us the word
Oh we know you're so inspired
And give me the war
Till you know I'm satisfied
Feed us the war
Till you know that, know I'm satisfied
Forward
