

Adore You

Calvin Richardson

Adore you, girl, I adore you
(You make my heart smile and sing, yeah)
I just smile every time I see you, girl, I adore you
(Make me want to buy a ring, now)

Oh, girl, yeah, my girl
Oh, girl, yeah, I adore you
(You make my heart smile and sing, yeah)
Listen now

Every time you come my way
Can't find a word to say
That will describe how much I love you
So I have to keep searching

The love you give is so perfect
I know I don't deserve you
Cause your love is so unselfish, yeah

When I'm feeling low
You help me get my feelings
Up, off of the floor
And when I think it's over you come back with some more

Woman, I just adore you, girl, I adore you
(You make my heart smile and sing, yeah)
I just smile every time I see you, girl, adore you
(Make me want to buy a ring, now)
Girl, I adore you, oh, girl

Sittin' here thinking how lucky I must be
(You make my heart smile and sing, yeah)
If you check my pocket, girl, you'll find is rabbit's feet
(On a string with your love, girl)

The love you give is so perfect
I know I don't deserve you
'Cause your love is so unselfish, girl

When I'm feeling low
You help me get my feelings
Up, off of the floor
And when I think it's over you come back with some more

Woman, I just adore you, girl, I adore you
(You make my heart smile and sing, yeah)
I just smile every time I see you, girl, adore you
(Make me want to buy a ring, now)
Girl, I adore you, oh, girl

When I look in your eye
It's like I'm staring through the window pane outside
You know this love is real, I'm telling you how I feel
It's the real deal, A-D-O-R-E you, oh

Adore you, girl, I adore you
(You make my heart smile and sing, yeah)

I just smile every time I see you, girl, adore you
(Make me want to buy a ring, now)
Oh, girl, yeah, oh, girl, I adore you
