

My Mistake

Canned Heat

Well I thought I'd been a gambler and I pegged my baby wrong Worrying about a nightmare baby it's been worring me too long I'm just trying to tell you what's been on my mind

well you didn't even write me and I didn't no how come...
I sat around and wondered how could I be so awfully dumb I had the blues so bad it hurt my mind to talk

I thought you had run a game on me I hope you understand Now everything is fine and I'd like to be your man but you never did a thing to let me donw its true

Now I never've loved a women in the way that I love you it was such a bad bad scene when I thought that we were through...
But i cried and i cried but i ain't gonna cry no more
