

High Velocity Impact Spatter

Cannibal Corpse

Climbing
Heights unimagined unattained
To drop bodies from the sky
Falling
Alive in mid air moving fast
Heads exploding on the ground
Throwing
Corrupted souls in front of trains
Just to watch the bodies fly
Grinning
At the site of shredded innards
Brains exploded all around

High velocity impact spatter

Slamming
You into walls excessive speed
Creates catastrophic sounds
Scraping
Fresh blood and guts from off the pavement
Before stench of death sets in Piercing
Between the eyes and unexpected
Liquid red spraying behind
Killing

Something I will always need
