

You Will Be Loved

Carina Round

Love come to your house
Ask to be let in Feel it as before
Sweeter now than then

Has your world been shattered
Confounded by fear
Let the pieces scatter
Everything becomes clear
Have faith my friend
You will be loved again

I am bent all the way broken
I am uncomfortably open
I am turned into an angel
I am no longer available
one things for sure
one things for sure
one thing I know for certain
I am really gone
I am gone for good
I am really gone
I am really gone
I am really gone
I am really gone
I am

Has your world been shattered
Confounded by fear
As the pieces scatter
Everything becomes clear
Have faith my friend

With nothing but a feeling
With little more than hope

I pray that you'll be lifted soon from hell
And we spin a shallow line
For your memory in mind

And I pray that you'll be lifted soon from hell
And the truth it is no secret
But you see exactly between it
And I pray that you'll be lifted soon from hell
And time holds the answers
But it doesn't wanna talk
And I pray
That you'll
Be lifted soon

I am really gone
I am really gone
I am really gone
I am really gone
I am

Has your world been shattered

And we spin a shallow line
For your memory in time
Disappeared, have faith
