

Die

Carissa's Wierd

I wake up, it's all gone
(your characteristic seemed alright)
I wish I had stayed at home
(you're so disappointed every time)
At home here, I need you to tell me all the wrong I've done
I wish you'd believe me, I'm alright in my life
(the backyard is empty when you're gone)
I see you way out there
You're standing on a lonely road
(Suppose that I said that I had lied just when you said that you were)
Die right now
I want to die right now
She wakes up and then leaves
(Your characteristic staircase smile)
He's coming; and not naive
Remember who your friends are (You're so disappointed when you try)
But don't forget the ones you love
Promise I'll make it in that hip-hop video
(the bad words are endless when you call)
I see you way out there
You're standing on a lonely road
(suppose I had said that I had lied, just when you said that you were)
Die right now
I never asked to be here
