

I dream of the end of the world,
As it dreams of the end of me.
Abandon all hope of leaving,
This world has no meaning.
I'll drink your blood and never look back.
I'll let you rot in hell and rip your heart in half.

This is why you and I will never see eye to eye.
This is why I'll never dream with closed eyes.
Who needs love when pain feels alright?
Who needs truth when all I want is lies?

I'll drink your blood and never look back.
I'll let you rot in hell and rip your heart in half.

When will this feeling stop?
Will I die afraid?
Will I ever change?
I'm just one wish away from hell or heartbreak,
The grave and God's face.

When will this feeling stop?
Will I die afraid?
Will I ever change?
I'm just one wish away from hell or heartbreak,
The grave and God's face.

I dream of the end of this world,
As it dreams of the end of me.

I dream of the end of the world.

I'll burn this world down,
I'll burn this world down.

This is why you and I will never see eye to eye.
This is why I'll never dream with closed eyes.
Who needs love when pain feels alright?
Who needs truth when all I want is lies?

I'll burn this world down,
To the f*cking ground.
I'll burn this world down,
To the f*cking ground.
