

Nowhere Fast

Casey Donahew Band

Well you left last night, to the beat on the floor,
Walked yourself right out the door,
Said if I see you again it will be too soon,

But I've got something to say to you,
Well I'm Ok with the fact that we're through, now
Ain't it funny how love makes the world go blind,

And I don't know how far you'll make it,
Before you realize your heart is breaking,
by that time well I'll be gone,
Standin' in the driveway waivin',
There's a breath of freedom I've been cravin',
Maybe this time was the last,
you're goin' nowhere fast

Now I wont miss the late night crying,
Your accusations my denying,
If you don't trust me just say you don't,
Cuz' you say you hate me, you say I'm leavin',
I'm so tired of this not believin',
That I love you is only words,

And I don't know how far you'll make it,
Before you realize your heart is breaking, by that time well I' ll be gone,
Standin' in the driveway waivin',
There's a breath of freedom I've been cravin',
Maybe this time was the last,
Oh you're goin' nowhere fast

And I take half the blame for this,
But its not you I'm gonna miss,
