

So where the fuck are you now?
I heard loud words long time ago.

Nothing but a teenage riot?
Nothing but an empty scream?
Nothing but a teenage riot?
Nothing but an empty scream into the night?

This is where you ended up! So where the fuck are you now?
This is where you ended up! Scream into the night.
This is where you ended up! So where the fuck are you now?
This is where you ended up! Scream into the night.

No sincerity in your words, nothingness is left of what I heard.

Nothing but a teenage riot?
Nothing but an empty scream?
Nothing but a teenage riot?
Nothing but an empty scream into the night?

This is where you ended up! There's no sincerity in your words.
This is where you ended up! Scream into the night.
This is where you ended up! There's no sincerity in your words.
This is where you ended up! Scream into the night.

Slipped off your skin!
Slipped off your skin!
Embrace what you have become, this is where you ended up.
Your revolution is a loss or just a youth rebellion.
Slipped off your juvenile skin, the black snake that you've been.
Your revolution is a loss or just a youth rebellion.

Nothing but a teenage riot?
Nothing but an empty scream?
Nothing but a teenage riot?
Nothing but an empty scream into the night?

This is where you ended up! So where the fuck are you now?
This is where you ended up! Scream into the night.
This is where you ended up! There's no sincerity in your words.
This is where you ended up! Scream into the night.
