Why I Can't Stand One Night Stands

Catatonia

You're adamant
So loose limbed i give in
Although your bed is warm
The worn springs they creak of regret

And lust is the thief who steals away While we were sleeping
Now you're doing my head in
The lines, the blinds are drawn

We are intimate strangers
I'm reborn, it's a false dawn
Where we've been, i forget
And Saturday's fuss is just small town lust

It's me I'm cheating
Now you're doing my head in
