Land Of The Severed Meatus

Cattle Decapitation

Enter the count
In all his grimoire testimony
Generations of genocide
Severed sex glands to his delight
Meatuses litter the ground
Every step--hundreds of genitals
Placed here for the kingdom of sodomy
Fanfare of depraved in despair
Blinding stench of carnage
Dismembered, discarded
Kill. Hate. Decreate.

In the perineum and out the mouth Quartered by wooden spikes Absence of genitalia Hidden by disgorged abdomen Entrails spill upon the land and then swept aside to my delight

Enter the tyrant with all his carnal necrophilia Generations of genocide Severed sex glands to his delight Meatuses under your feet Placed here for the kingdom of sodomy

A cornucopia of throbbing gutshed The sand is blood red and stained with disease Every appendage is pinned and held high A testament to humanity Cannot you just die?

Everything you know.
Everything you love.
Must be destroyed.
You die annihilated...

Islets and divided sectors for every body part
Standing in fields of disease
Praying on bended knees
That you might survive
As you've lost your arms as they've tossed your legs
The hounds now eat the carnage
A fleshy turf now thrives
You've died of your wounds
Earthen visceral womb
Geography—a tomb

Enter the Christian
So blind in your demise
Impossible to run with spikes through your thighs
Meatuses litter the street
