G: Good evening
this is Mr. Gorbachev-
R: Hello
Gorby
this is the White House Ronald Reagan speaking-
G: Hello
my old friend
how are you today ?
R: Fine ! It's time for our daily chess-match are you ready ?
G: Yes
my last move yesterday was the Queen from A6 to B6-

They both send their weapons into space-their people's problems they seem to displacethe arms-race is what they can't negotiate-why ain't it chess about what they debate ?

What went wrong on the Gulf of Iran ?
Why did the Russians invade Afghanistan ?
Why not save the money for the armaments and be chess-partners in the tournament ?

Reagan and Gorbachev play chess on T.V.- the senate is giving a party on the seathe nuclear war will forever be banned-it's only their kings which they have to defend.
