Shadow's Dancing

Celtic Thunder

Shadows, shadows dancing Shadows, shadows dancing again and again, and again and again

Shadows dancing in the moonlight Shadows dancing in the dark Memories, dancing for me....

Shadows, shadows dancing Shadows, shadows dancing again and again, and again and again

Come to me, come to me, feel my passion Come fulfill my fantasy, Come and be my phantom lover, Be my man of mystery. Never ever thought how much I'd want you Never ever thought I'd be ready to scream Will I ever feel your body near me? Only in a never-ending dream, In a never-ending......

Shadows dancing in the moonlight Shadows dancing in the dark Memories, dancing for me....
