

Waking Up

Charlie Hall

And I wake up, 'cause You're mercy is new
And it causes me to sing to You
Yeah I rise up, 'cause You're mercy is new
And it causes me to sing to You
Praise the Lord, my soul and all of my being
Be my all today and all that I'm seeing
Keep me close to You, my heart close to You speaking
Father keep me close, yeah
And I say today that You are true and faithful
I want Your heart today and a heart that is grateful
And in my weakness, Lord, I know that You will sustain me
Oh, restrain me God, please
With all of my being
I rise up to sing
Sing, sing
I rise up to sing
