

45 Days In Tokyo

Charlie Straight

I wanna be, I wanna be
I wanna be with you
I wanna stay for forty-five days
For forty-five days in Tokyo
Don't ask me why
I wanna fly over the sea
You will see, you will see

I wanna go, I wanna go
I wanna go with you
I wanna leave all of the past behind
Why don't you leave your past behind?
Give me a sign
When you have made up your mind
Take your time, take your time

What's the time now in Tokyo?
I don't know, let me guess
I still believe we can work it out
If I Look east and you look west

Are you there? Calling Tokyo...
Or am I talking to myself?
Who'd have thought you'd forget it all?
We were fine when you left

Oh, forty-five days in Tokyo!
I'm still in love, ah!

I wanna know, I wanna know
I need to know the truth
Could you be mine?
Will you decide
After forty-five days in Tokyo?
Where are you now?
Don't leave me high and dry
Tell me why, tell me why...

What's the time now in Tokyo?
I don't know, let me guess
I still believe we can work it out
If I look east and you look west

Are you there? Calling Tokyo...
Or am I talking to myself?
Who'd have thought you'd forget it all?
We were fine when you left
When you left
