

You Can

Charlie Straight

If I could stop the time, I'd do it
If I could make you mine, you're mine anyway
If I could count the stars, I'd count them all
If I should count the cars passing by there would be some more

What does it mean again?
What does it mean again?

Baby, of course you can
Baby, of course you can
I'm not a perfect man, I'm at least true
Baby, of course you can
Baby, of course you can
I'm not a perfect man, I'm at least true

Everyone tries to sleep and so do I
Why are the dreams so deep that they seem real?
If I could only say a word, I'd say "Speak!"
Words couldn't save the world, no, no
Only you can

What does it mean again?
What does it mean again?

Baby, of course you can
Baby, of course you can
I'm not a perfect man, I'm at least true
Baby, of course you can
Baby, of course you can
I'm not a perfect man, I'm at least true

Baby, of course
Baby, of course you can
I'm not a perfect man, I'm at least true
Baby, of course
Baby, of course you can
I'm not a perfect man, I'm at least true
