Years ago, our love was told Reminded those of love Like in a storybook

Now we're fighting every day This ain't love, This is hate Get it straight Take a break Storybrook

Years ago our love was told
Reminisced and kissed
The fifties flame
So we've been told
Now we're fighting every day
This ain't love
This is hate
Get it straight
Take a break
Donnybrook

Pretty pictures of the queens themselves You had my 8 by ten on your shelf You sold me cheap And I cried for help

You stayed with us through thick and thin You sat and watched with quaaludes and gin And clapped a lot

Were you there When we were almost crucified and died A thousand deaths? No? Well, thanks a lot

4 kings with an army strong You knew the words to all our songs

You stayed with us all night long

Pretty pictures of the queens themselves You had my 8 by ten on your shelf You sold me cheap And I cried for help Well thanks a lot