Shelter

Cheap Trick

If I had a child, I would shelter it from harm If I had a child, I would hold it in my arms If I had a child, I would love it as my own If I had a home

If I had a mom, I would shelter her from harm If I had my mother, she would never lose her grace If I had a mother, she would shelter me from harm Oh, if I had a mom

If I had a love, I would shelter it from a broken heart
If I had a heart, I'd surrender it to my love
If I had my father, he would smile
If I had my dad, he'd be so kind

If I had a dad, he would tell me I was good Oh, if I, if I, if I had a dad, had my dad
