Southern Girls

I've been north, I've been east to the california beach There's only one place i know where to find you And all you southern girls got a way with your words And you show it You say hump and I'll jump You say go and I'll know Waste no time getting So close to you And you'll never run way When you find out why I wanted to find you

Ooh baby need some brand new shoes Get out on the street You got nothing to lose You rock me and your crazy And everyone says it, yeah yeah Southern girls, you got nothing to lose Southern girls, you got nothing to lose

I've been up I've been down I've been weak I've been strong But I never met someone like you And you'll never run away When you find why I wanted to find you You say hump and I'll jump You say go and I'll know Waste no time getting So close to you All you southern girls Got a way with your words And you show it

Ooh baby need some brand new shoes Get out on the street You got nothing to lose You rock me and your crazy And everyone says it, yeah yeah Southern girls, you got nothing to lose Southern girls, you got nothing to lose

You think this boy, he loves you Southern girls You make it hard oh, so hard I've been north, I've been east to the california beach There's only one place i know where to find you And all you southern girls got a way with your words And you show it

Southern girls, you got nothing to lose Southern girls, you got nothing to lose
