You Wouldn't Know Love

So now you're back So you had your fun And now you're coming around again Sure baby, I should let you in So you can let me down again Well, it doesn't really matter What you say or do You can tell me that you love me But I know it ain't true

'Cause you wouldn't know love If it knocked down your door You wouldn't know it now You never knew it before If it landed in your hands From the Heavens above You wouldn't know love (You wouldn't know love) No, you wouldn't know love

Said you changed Said you done me wrong But you won't do it anymore No darling, I don't have to tell you Where I heard that line before Baby, you would say anything To get back into my heart When it comes to loving You don't even know where to start

'Cause you wouldn't know love If it knocked down your door You wouldn't know it now You never knew it before If it landed in your hands From the Heavens above You wouldn't know love (You wouldn't know love) No, you wouldn't know love

Did you think that I would believe Anything that you said Let you come back to me Baby, there's just no way Baby, I've had enough And you wouldn't know love

(You wouldn't know love) You wouldn't know love If it knocked down your door You wouldn't know it now You never knew it before If it landed in your hands From the Heavens above You wouldn't know love (You wouldn't know love) No, you wouldn't know love Cher

(You wouldn't know love) You wouldn't know love

You wouldn't know love If it knocked down your door You wouldn't know it now You never knew it before If it landed in your hands From the Heavens above You wouldn't know love (You wouldn't know love) No, you wouldn't know love

You wouldn't know love If it knocked down your door You wouldn't know it now You never knew it before If it landed in your hands From the Heavens above
