Chevelle

I paid you, scream with Don't try healing this too
That said, you're full of it
All of men made to fail
Properly holding your grudge
That said, you're full of shit.

Try accepting this
What I face today
Forever want to crawl out
Fade out next to lazy
End it all within

What I face today
Forever want to crawl out
Fade out next to lazy
End it all within

Last burned, we'll grab up in
From a fault that not known
Hate at work, but love a sin
The summer came, juxtapose
All the sounds of this home
But don't complain to beat again

Try accepting this
What I face today
Forever want to crawl out
Fade out next to lazy
End it all within

What I face today
Forever want to crawl out
Fade out next to lazy
End it all within

If only the crying could heal
I'd sell my left arm to buy passion
If only apologies worked Well I could find some reasons
Why maybe you wouldn't be So ill, so, ill, sorry your souls
so fucking shallow
it's creeping outside, outside of its hole it's trying to see, say it fake this reality

What I face today
Forever want to crawl out
Fade out next to lazy
End it all within

What I face today
Forever want to crawl out
End it all within

What I face today
What I face today
What I face today
What I face

What I face today
What I face today
What I face today
What I face today
