

Take Off

Chipmunk

Never thought id see the day when you wasn't by my side.
Listen I was down for you girl put you first in my world
And I thought you were down too right
It's like you didn't want me to take off, take off, take off.
It's like you didn't want me to take off, take off.
But now I'm leaving.

I keep my life in a lime light, pap lights, award shows, red floors, booji b ars
Yes its what I'm meant for
And we ain't quite the same as we used to be My life's in the public eye, I know you don't want yours to be Truthfully, 2years in its still new to me
I wouldn't say your comfortable, I would say your used to me
Hense separating doesn't seem real
They tell me chip keep the girl that you had before the deal- Chyeaah.
You can call this my reff flow, could this decision might determine how the game goes
Every time you get use me being here, I go. On that note that's my que to go

It's like you didn't want me to take off, take off.
But now I'm leaving.

If it ain't a push forward its a slow down
It's kind of ironic that I slow down,
It's best that I go now rather than later
Before you claim I'm too busy chasing that paper -it's true talk
And to say its over there ain't no good words,
I don't think anybody breaks up on good terms
So I'ma hit the club (yep)
Get my mingle on (yep) get my single on and throw it in a single song- Chyea ah.
And you could call this my reff flow, could this decision might determine ho w to game goes
Every time you get used to me being here, I go. On that note that's my que t o go.

But now I'm leaving.

They always ask me if I'm single in interviews
I was too scared to say I'm into you. moving like a single dude
Didn't ever lie but I skipped the truth
Its past breaks now, fuck it- interlude.
On my own feeling like I've got a point to prove Hungry but I don't wanna have my cake and eat it too
And it's not that I ain't feelin you
I'm leaving us, I ain't leaving you
