

Sinister Love

Circle II Circle

In your cold stare
Behind the veil of night
Lie your true intentions
And I quickly realize
I am captured
By your sacred shadow
I could disappear forever
And no one would ever know
Obsession stands before me now
Bleeding desire I've been hiding for so long
It's frightening
But I just don't care
Take me
Unchain me
Feed my despair

You got me lost in the wheels of confusion
Total submission is the game that you play
Using your ways to keep me lost in illusion
Nothing controls me like the pain
Of your sinister love

Take advantage
Of my addictions
Playing with fire
Tell me now what have I done
Your pretender
I surrender
Nowhere to hide
When our worlds collide

You got me lost in the wheels of confusion
Total submission is all I can take
You got me spinning in a world of illusion
It's the way you're making me a slave
To your sinister love
