Heads in Georgia

Eric Clapton

Well my heads in Georgia but my feet are California bound Well my heads in Georgia but my feet is California bound Cause that good looking woman I got wants to leave these Georgi a towns

Well we ride them old freight trains rent them automobiles For we ride them old freight trains and rent them automobiles Cause that good looking woman is tired of these old Georgia hil

And that lonesome old highway seems to be our way no doubt And that lonesome old highway seems to be the way no doubt Cause that good looking woman and me, we just hanging out

Trains and airplanes is all we do, I'm running half the time ju st like she wants me to

Makes me no difference to me when all is said and done, headed west toward the setting sun

Well my heads in Georgia but my feet is California bound Cause that good looking woman I got wants to leave these Georgi a towns

Well my heads in Georgia but my feet is California bound Well my heads in Georgia but my feet is California bound Cause that good looking I got wants to leave these Georgia town s

Cause that good looking woman I got wants to leave these Georgi a towns

Good looking woman I got wants to leave these Georgia towns