Dirty Lies

Clawfinger

You treat me like I'm fucking useless, what makes you think I e ven care

I think this whole affair is fruitless and it won't lead to any where

I never said you had to like me, I never shoved shit down your throat

But you still act like you're above me, with all that heartless crap you wrote

You try to suffocate me, you try to violate me You try to fill me full with all your dirty lies You try to ridicule me, but I won't let you fool me Cos' you're so pitiful and easy to despise

What have you done that might impress me, I can't think of anyt hing at all

Don't even want you to adress me, it's not as if you make the c alls

You compensate your lack of talent, talentlessly slagging what you hate

How does it feel to kill a debutant, so you can put food on you r plate?

Chorus

I don't know how to rate a failure, so I got nothing more to sa Y

And I'm so sick of your behaviour, so watch me when I walk away

You try to suffocate me, you try to violate me You try to fill me full with all your dirty lies You try to ridicule me, but I won't let you fool me Cos' you're so pitiful and easy to despise X 2
