

She Is

Clazziquai Project

The shy heart that I hide, I will give it to you
Your smile, moves my cold personality

My dark closed heart, I will give it to you Your strong love has given a meaning to me

At first the unfamiliar special scent that only you had intrigued me
As time passes I change and keep changing oh~ You shined light on my world ,she is the girl she is the one
Everything changed through you

My shy heart that I hide, I will give it to you
your smile, moves my cold personality

At first the unfamiliar special scent that only you had
intrigued me
In this world, when you're here, everything is okay let it change

My closed dark heart, I will give it to you ~yeh
Your strong love has given meaning to my life.
My shy heart that I hide , I will give to you ~yeh

Your smile, moves my cold personality.
My dark closed heart, I will give to you.
Your strong love has given meaning to my life.

And yeh~ Your smile, moves my cold personality.
