

Human Work of Art

Cliff Richard

No one on earth
Means more to me
Your painted pictures
Are the way that the world should be

Don't ever change it
I don't wanna live in this world without you
Oh no

I can't explain, I can't define
What you do to me, but my senses are so alive
You tell your story
And it's all that I ever believe

Portraits and poetry
Are frozen forms of perfection
But they don't live and breathe
When my heart's in need they don't answer me

You, ooh, you are
You're a human work of art
Walking, talking inspiration

You, ooh, you are
You're a human work of art
You make me love, you make me care

You give me freedom
I don't need when I know you're there
My search is over
I've got all of the riches that money don't buy
Oh no

Your words are poetry
And your face is more than perfection
The way I watch you move it only goes to prove
In everything to do

You, ooh, you are
You're a human work of art
Walking, talking inspiration

You, ooh, you are
You're a human work of art

You're my mission
You're my goal
Ooh you liberate my soul

There's no illusion, that your touch is gold

Portraits and poetry
Are frozen forms of perfection
The way I watch you move it only goes to prove
In everything you do

You, ooh, you are

You're a human work of art
Walking, talking new sensation

You, ooh, you are
