

Facts Of Love

Climie Fisher

There was a time I thought I knew it all in matters of the heart.
Now looking back in time I realize I'd only made a start.
You gotta hold of me
You showed me what it's all about.

Now I feel warm wind rushin' in making my emotions start to spin.
No
I can't explain this state I'm in
Guess I must be learning.

Sometimes I wonder how I ever lived before you came my way.
Now I'm addicted to your kiss

It feels like thunder's runnin' through my veins.
Like some kind of miracle's happening
Taking me up higher than I've evr been.
You start a fire burning deep within physically revealing.
