

Modern Love

Coasts

Sunlight, no sound
Seek shade until we touch the ground
Rough night, hard flown
Gotta promise you an open door

List out, call lubes
Can't remember walking back with you
Skin burns, blood foams
Now we've got a place to call our own

This modern love
Was always gonna fade away
This modern love
And now we're gonna start again
This modern love
This modern love
Oohoh, oohoh, I can hear you calling out
Oohoh, oohoh, echoes of a distant sound

Still high, for now
Walk woman, try to figure it out
Heart beats so slow
Now we're living in the afterglow

This modern love
Was always gonna fade away
This modern love
And now we're gonna start again
Oohoh, oohoh, I can hear you calling out
Oohoh, oohoh, echoes of a distant sound

This modern love
Was always gonna fade away
This modern love
And now we're gonna start again
Oohoh, oohoh, I can hear you calling out
Oohoh, oohoh, echoes of a distant sound

I just wanna stay strong
Been waiting for your love so long
I just wanna stay strong
Been waiting for your touch

Oohoh, oohoh, I can hear you calling out
Oohoh, oohoh, echoes of a distant sound

This modern love
Was always gonna fade away
This modern love
And now we're gonna start again
Oohoh, oohoh, I can hear you calling out
Oohoh, oohoh, echoes of a distant sound
