

There's a cross she made that has her name
In the garden by the store
With a picture and a note that says
I can't feel you anymore

Was it God in here
Did He make you pray
Did He burn you up
Does it taste the same
When everyone around you falls apart

Was it God in here
Did He make you pray
Did He burn you up
Did He save the day
When everyone around you falls apart

I can see her through the window pane
Trying hard not to call
When she lost her boy she went insane
She don't live here anymore

Was it God in here
Did He make you pray

Did He burn you up
Does it taste the same
When everyone around you falls apart

Was it God in here
Did He make you pray
Did He burn you up
Did He save the day
When everyone around you falls apart

She stood and prayed for our souls
Our hearts, our love to start

Was it God in here
Did He make you pray
Did He burn you up
Does it taste the same
When everyone around you falls apart

Was it God in here
Did He make you pray
Did He burn you up
Did He save the day
When everyone around you falls apart
