

A Hopeful Transmission

Coldplay

And, if I lost a man,
If I lost it all,
Or fell into the trap,
Would you go.

When your tired of waiting, and you just find you never had a s tart, c'mon baby, dont let it break your heart.

Though, (everly we play?) still over call.
Try and catch a cannonball.
And its sloooow and I am tired oh, two majors flowing from a sh ipwreck I heard the call.

Well she said, when you're tired of aiming your arrows, still y ou never hit the mark.
Ohhh, even when you're ready, theres shadows, still we never go nna part.

Ahhh c'mon baby, dont let it break your heart.
Ohhhhhhh, dont let it break your heart.
Ohhhhhhh, don't let it break your heart.

Don't let it break your heart.
