

The Revelation

coldrain

Here we are Just let it go
For interfere and let yourself explode
Break down the walls
Feel what is right if you strive for something more

Listen to your lies
Under the wall of skies
Another wall will rise

Listen to your lies
Unless your just too blind
Maybe you're somebody else

Wake up before your time is up
You never know if you don't try now
So just go
Excel the pact
This is your life
This is your time to shine

Welcome to The Revelation
Liberate yourself it's now or never
Now or never
Don't you let them take you down
Welcome to Your Evolution
Free yourself and make it last forever
Last forever
Welcome to The Revelation
Listen to your lies
Under the wall of skies
Another wall will rise

Listen to your lies
Unless your just too blind
It's not too late to try
So bring yourself back

Welcome to The Revelation
Liberate yourself it's now or never
Now or never
Don't you let them take you down
Welcome to Your Evolution
Free yourself and make it last forever
Last forever
Welcome to The Revelation

Think and you will find
What you need is inside

Think and you will find
What you need is inside
Welcome to The Revelation

Welcome to The Revelation
Now or never

Don't you let them take you down
Last forever

(Think and you will find

Think and you will find
