

Don't Believe You Anymore

Colin Hay

You and I were so in love

We grew up together
You could say we were friends
Our vows were forever we could not pretend
I gave you my heart and I gave you my love
But whatever I gave you was never enough

Things aren't what they used to be
We've been through all this before
Now I'm walking out the door
Cos I just don't believe you anymore

You and I were so in love
Don't try to appease me
Cos I just don't believe you anymore
You and I were so in love
You know I don't want to leave you
But I just don't believe you

You say I gave you no warning
But I tried to tell you for years
You ignored the signs and left me with my silent tears
You don't understand, what it is you have done
I'm going crazy, I'm climbing walls
I have to move, you know I've got to run

You're just staring at the floor
My bags are packed and on the bed
And there's a taxi at the door
And I just don't believe you anymore

You and I were so in love
You know I don't want to leave you
But I just don't believe you anymore
You and I were so in love
You and I were so in love

This house is not a home to me
So before the credits roll
And I lose my very soul
I just don't believe you anymore

You and I were so in love
Don't try to appease me
You know I don't want to leave you
But I just don't believe

You and I were so in love
It's too late to try and please me
Cos I just don't believe you anymore

You and I were so in love

You and I were so in love
