Dreamtime in Glasgow

I can't begin to tell you What is in my mind So here I sit since last October Sometimes I feel as if that I am mocking time I'm doing my best at staying sober

And if you were to say to me What is it that you want to be I surely don't know And if I seem a little slow It's only dreamtime in Glasgow

I'd love to sit and talk There's a lot I have to know But I can't stay here and be happy I'll buy you one drink my friend and then I have to go For I have a wife and family But I had to stop on my way home To dream of places that I'll never roam But meanwhile today It is here that I will stay Doing dreamtime in Glasgow

I still believe I still believe

I dreamt I was drowning in the Clyde I fell off the docks and into the rising tide But then I realized As I opened up my eyes It's only dreamtime in Glasgow

It's only dreamtime in Glasgow It's only dreamtime in Glasgow Colin Hay
