I Don't Know Why

I don't know why Why you had to leave me And I don't know why You said goodbye Only if I try Can I feel the earth beneath me And as days go by I come alive The fall of your hair The feel of your skin And the smile on your face As you took me in Now I lie And stare at the sky Still I wonder why I don't know why You said that you'd release me No matter how I try I still feel you I watched a falling leaf Drifting down towards me Carried by the wind It disappeared I sat in disbelief At what had become of me And as the day grew dark I rose to go And as I walked along I thought I heard you call me Alas I was alone So I went home The fall of your hair The feel of your skin And the smile on your face As you took me in Now I lie No longer cry But still I wonder why I don't know why You were taken from me I cannot forget Or say goodbye
