

I Don't Miss You Now

Colin Hay

Hey now baby
You never left me alone yeah
You used to own me
I was wasting my life away

Hey but lately
You're no longer the only
I must have been crazy
There's no prize for the lonely

I don't miss you now
I don't miss you now
I don't miss you now
I don't miss you now

Well I can tell you
I couldn't wait to get home yeah
You never ignored me
You'd always listen to what I'd say

I cried when I lost you
But tears are a small price to pay
Now when I come across you
Well it took some time but

I don't miss you now
I don't miss you now
I don't miss you now
I don't miss you now

I don't miss you now
I don't miss you now
I don't miss you now
I don't miss you now
